

Welcome to the future of Leviton product content!

Leviton has partnered with DDS, who will work directly with each authorized distributor to manage and deliver comprehensive “e-commerce-ready” Leviton product content to populate your e-commerce website.

This new syndication solution will increase the speed and efficiency with which you receive Leviton data and will improve the content experience for your website customers and your sales.

Please submit the completed SIGN-UP/DATA REQUEST FORM here with your contact information and specifications on the file format, delivery method, and frequency you would prefer.

This page also contains information ABOUT DDS, some informative Q+A on the new syndication solution, what to expect with the IMPLEMENTATION process, and details on DDS' customer SUPPORT.

Thank you, and we look forward to working with you!

Better Content. Better Delivery. Better Experience.

The wholesale distribution market has evolved. Your product content—and your delivery process—should, too.

You don't have a content problem. You have a technology problem.

Until now, managing product content for digital and e-commerce purposes has been a slow and painful process, leaving end customers with insufficient content and a lackluster experience.
